The 2nd official day of summer had us all fooled with its overcast conditions and gusty WNW winds that kept everyone on their toes trying to keep their boats upright in the squalls and looking for momentum in the light. The points suggest that skippers were sailing competitively under fairly trying conditions with just the odd contact at the bottom mark but with no damage to any of the boats. Stand out skipper was Colin H who was hiding behind a pair of new dark glasses and looking cool, they obviously helped as he won today's event! Well done also to Barry and Judy and to Dan who had a creditable 4th. Hope the weather improves for the rest of the week. Cheers Bunny
