Aggregate Match Race Series 8

There had been no wind all morning and it was overcast with no sun that might bring some breeze with thermals. When we got to the pond there still almost no wind and it was quite cold. It started to drizzle and by 2pm it was raining quite hard with no sign that it was going away any time soon.

I decided that it was too wet to take photos and that I was too cold and wet, so I left the 11 members prepared to race to it and went home.

The results show that they completed the racing. Chris Yates and Reuben Muir won all 4 of their races.

With just one more race day to be sailed Rick Royden still leads the series with Brian Christensen and Laurie Glover in second and third place.
