Aggregate Match Race Series 4

I am still isolating so, again, I was not at the pond.

I am not quite sure how the draw was done for the racing but they seem to have given everyone 4 races. Hopefully, I have been able to interpret the scratching outs and overwritings correctly.

Rick Royden won all four of his races and this puts him in the lead in the series.

2021 McCaw Cup Final

Mike Renner and Brian Christen counted their Aggregate match race also as a race in their series for the McCaw Cup. Brian won that race giving him three wins in the best-of-five series and thus he wins the McCaw Cup.
